

Press Release about MEDICA 2018

A.K. TEK – Manufacturing and Development Competence

According to the motto „Medical Devices of NRW“ A.K.TEK GmbH – as a sought-after developmental and manufacturing partner in medical technology – will be part at MEDICA from 12.-15. November 2018 at the joint booth in charge by the land of North-Rhine-Westphalia, hall 3, booth C80.

A.K. TEK – From Customers Request up to High-End-Solution

A.K.TEK GmbH offers a combination of developmental competency and high-end production technology, intelligent surface technology and continuous quality assurance – from individual to series production. A wide range of technologies is the base – like various manufacturing processes, surface technologies and cleanroom applications.

A close and trustful cooperation with customers, implantologists, clinics and institutions is the key for success.

A.K. TEK – Reliable Partner for R&D projects

By highest quality and precision in combination with latest measurement technology A.K.TEK GmbH becomes an esteemed partner for contract manufacturing and for R&D-projects. As an industrial and project partner, A.K.TEK GmbH currently contends to major national competitions with contemporary issues, the innovation of the specific manufacturing process in medical technology is always in the focus.

The aim of the project „MiZ-Mikrostrukturierte Zahnimplantate“ is the development of a novel micro structured surfaces for dental implants ; A.K.TEK GmbH is associated partner with Fraunhofer IPK and Laser-Mikrotechnologie Dr. Kieburg GmbH.

A.K. TEK – Implant-Systems for Dental- and Medical Engineering

A.K.TEK GmbH was founded 2003 in Hagen. The main focus is on further development and manufacturing of dental implant-systems though bone screws, individual solutions and innovative elements for the spinal surgery up to medical components for the minimally-invasive surgery.

